

FAFSA for Families

FSA ID

When you fill out a FAFSA, you will get an FSA ID (this allows you to access your FAFSA info)

- To get one, visit: <https://fsaid.ed.gov>
- Parents AND Students will each use unique emails to create a username & password
- Use your legal full-name, date of birth, and social security number to create an FSA ID
- Verify your FSA ID with your email and/or cell phone number to secure your account

Priority FAFSA Deadlines

ASU	January 15, 2020
NAU	November 15, 2019
UofA	March 1, 2020
Maricopa Community Colleges/Coconino Community College/Pima Community College: Rolling Deadlines

Documents to Collect Beforehand

Have these documents ready:

- Social Security number for student and parent(s)
- 2018 taxes and W-2's for student and parent(s)
- List of colleges/universities you want to receive your FAFSA
- Record of untaxed income (i.e. child-support)
- Driver's license number (if available)

After the FAFSA is Submitted

There are a few things to look out for once your application is complete:

- Student Aid Report (SAR) report will be emailed to you once the application is processed
- Verification may be required, follow up with your college or university's financial aid department

FASA + College Application = Award Letter

Filling out the FAFSA

A few tips for completing your FAFSA:

- Sign-in with your FSA ID OR Student information
- Seniors graduating High School in 2020 will complete the 2020-2021 FAFSA
- The myStudentAid app can be used on mobile devices to complete the FAFSA application
- Students can send their FAFSA to as many as 10 colleges or universities at a time

Other Information

Are your parents undocumented? As long as the student is a U.S. citizen or eligible non-citizen, they can complete a FAFSA and qualify for federal financial aid

Here is what to do:

- Student needs an FSA ID, parent does not
- Use all zeros for parents without a social security number
- Print the FAFSA Signature page, parent will physically sign that document and send it in the mail
- Talk to your college or university about alternative forms or processes for financial aid